

August 16, 2003

LOCAL HOME INSPECTOR EARNS CRI DESIGNATION

Minneapolis, Minnesota: – Hy Naiditch President of ACCUspect Home Inspection Services, Inc. located in Skokie, IL recently earned the Certified Real Estate Inspector (CRI) designation by passing the required examination and meeting requirements set forth by the Board of Directors of the National Association of Home Inspectors (NAHI). The designation is bestowed upon home inspectors who demonstrate their knowledge of, and proficiency in, all aspects of home inspection. A Certified Real Estate Inspector must maintain continuing education credits to remain in the program.

"The National Association of Home Inspectors is very pleased to award this designation to deserving home inspectors who participate in the program," said Ralph Wirth, NAHI President. "NAHI developed the CRI program in our efforts to cultivate the professionalism of home inspectors. Hy Naiditch demonstrated the necessary experience and knowledge to earn the CRI designation."

The National Association of Home Inspectors is a non-profit association established to promote and develop the home inspection industry. NAHI promulgates the NAHI Standards of Practice & Code of Ethics to promote professionalism of home inspectors and to provide a consistent method of performance of home inspections. NAHI provides educational opportunities to benefit its members, enhance the home inspection industry and protect consumers from fraudulent, misleading or deceptive practices.

Consumers may obtain material describing the importance of a reputable home inspection in residential real estate transactions or receive a copy of the NAHI Standards of Practice & Code of Ethics by calling the NAHI hotline, 800-448-3942.